About Leaf...

Leaf Books is an independent publisher producing exciting new forms, such as nano-fiction, micro-fiction and tiny weeny fiction. We also publish poetry, memoirs and short stories.

We strive to be a nurturing publisher, offering the following services to all writers:

- Writing Competitions: your opportunity to win prizes and be published.
- Root Creations: our printing service. We print your work and promote sales. It's easy to do: get in touch for more details!
- Writing Critiques: receive constructive feedback on your work.
- Creative Writing Workshops: for writers' groups or anyone who wants one.

More about Leaf Writers' Magazine: the Spring/Summer Issue

Issue 3 features a hoard of articles on writing techniques, plus a special focus on collaboration and multi-authored work. Guest authors include Philip Gross and Myra Schneider, alongside a selection of winning work by top Leaf writers.

Pore over the essential guide to writing handbooks, as well as the literary listings and the pick of this year's festivals.

Take part in a range of creative writing competitions, gather tips for writing micro-fiction, discover writing courses in your area & much more!
